

QHSE POLICY

RAK PETROPACK LLC is committed to delivering superior quality plastic packaging products while ensuring the highest standards of Quality, Occupational Health & Safety, and Environmental protection. Our approach reflects our vision of becoming a world-class organization driven by quality, innovation, and sustainability.

We operate an Integrated Management System (IMS) aligned with international standards to ensure consistent performance, customer satisfaction, and continual improvement across all our business activities.

VISION & MISSION

The aim of the company is guaranteeing its clients a product which adapts to their needs and fulfils the highest requirements of the market. To go ahead with them we base on two main principles; permanent technological innovation, human and professional development with clients and suppliers. Consequently, it has been developed investments projects in technology which made it possible to provide our manufacturing plant with equipment responding to the most advanced standards of international quality. RAK PETROPACK mission is to deliver products to the full satisfaction of its customers, and this can be achieved through unceasing attention to every details. We are committed to provide customers with a consistently high level of quality products and services.

COMPLIANCE

RAK PETROPACK, LLC purpose to operate an accredited QHSE management system that will serve as framework for managing its operations to assure IMS management in the organization and demonstrate continuous compliance with applicable International / National regulatory standards. We also recognize climate change as a significant external issue and are actively aligning our operations to be more resilient, adaptive, and environmentally responsible.

OUR COMMITMENT

1. Quality Excellence

RAK PETROPACK, LLC ensures that the quality management system shall be subjected to continual improvement along with the following quality objectives that will remain valid and reflects current changes in accordance with the prevailing business trends.

- To produce high percentage quality products and less wastage we need to minimal the capacity of effective utilization.
- To minimize recyclable waste, we have to sustain the production operations with quality virgin raw materials and supplies.
- Consistently meeting not only customer requirements but also offers value added services by providing much improved products in terms of technical aspect and economically feasible to the satisfaction of customers.
- To reduce waste, enhance energy efficiency, and support innovation that aligns with environmental and climate goals. Understand the company's commitment to its quality objectives and effectiveness of the actions to be taken to address risks and opportunities-based approach in all processes of QMS system. At RAK PETROPACK LLC, quality accompanied with social accountability is the reason for its strong existence in the market and as environmental friendly organization.

2. Occupational Health & Safety

- Provide a safe, healthy, and secure workplace for employees, contractors, and visitors.
- Identify hazards, assess risks, and implement effective control measures.
- Prevent work-related injuries and ill health through proactive safety management.
- Enhance employee awareness, participation, and competency through training and engagement.

3. Environmental Sustainability

- Minimize environmental impact through efficient resource utilization and waste reduction.
- Promote sustainable materials, including environmentally friendly and biodegradable solutions.
- Reduce emissions, energy consumption, and waste generation in alignment with climate goals.
- Strengthen resilience and adaptability to climate change as a key external factor.

4. Compliance & Governance

- Comply with all applicable legal, regulatory, and international standards.
- Maintain transparency, accountability, and ethical business practices.
- Integrate risk-based thinking and opportunity management into all processes.

5. Continual Improvement & Innovation

- Establish measurable QHSE objectives aligned with business strategy.
- Drive continual improvement through audits, management reviews, and performance monitoring.
- Promote innovation in products, processes, and sustainability practices.
- Optimize resource utilization, reduce waste, and enhance operational efficiency.

6. Employee Engagement & Responsibility

- Ensure all employees understand and implement QHSE requirements in their roles.
- Foster a culture of quality, safety, and environmental responsibility.
- Encourage teamwork, professional development, and shared commitment to organizational goals.

Managing Director

Date: 18/06/2026

